

ENVIRON

Safety Management Ltd

COURSE TITLE: IOSH – Managing Safety

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

This course is aimed at managers & supervisors that are required to manage employees and their work activities, in compliance with the company's Safety Policy & Health & Safety legislation.

AIMS:

Apply basic management principles & practices to Health & Safety issues, set practical Health & Safety objectives & implement means of achieving those objectives. Recognise risks present in the workplace and set appropriate control measures, take account of risks posed by human factors. Ensure that adequate information, instruction, training and supervision are provided within the workplace. Investigate all incidents involving injury or damage in order to determine the causes and to take appropriate remedial actions. Communicate effectively on Health & safety issues with supervisors, employees and Health & Safety professionals and understand the main legal requirements of employers and managers and to act to fulfil these obligations

COURSE CONTENT:

- Introduction to Health & Safety at Work
- Accident Philosophy
- Health & Safety legal requirements and enforcement issues
- Management of Health & Safety regulations
- Risk Assessments, Hazard identification, Risk level quantification and Implementing control measures
- Monitoring and reviewing requirements, Reactive and active monitoring
- Safe use of work equipment
- Electrical safety
- Workplace transport
- Workplace welfare
- Safe use and storage of hazardous substances
- Manual handling and basic ergonomics
- Noise at work
- Management systems
- Stress and Violence at work

CANDIDATE ASSESSMENT: Test paper and project assessment

QUALIFICATION: IOSH accredited qualification

COURSE DURATION: 4 days with further 14 days personal project completion

NUMBER OF DELEGATES: Min 5. Max 12

COST: £595 + vat per delegate

